THE HOUSE

Halliday Homes Collection are delighted to bring to the market Keirallan House a charming, four-bedroom, detached steading set in a superb rural setting and offering spectacular views over the countryside. Early viewing is recommended to appreciate the quality of accommodation on offer and the convenience of this hidden gem.

The deceptively, spacious accommodation on the ground floor comprises; entrance vestibule, lounge, middle hallway, bespoke fitted kitchen, dining room, garden room, gym, shower room, utility room, rear hall and boot room. On the upper level are four good sized double bedrooms, en-suite to the principal bedroom, dressing room to bedroom four which is currently being used as a Home Office, family bathroom and excellent storage cupboards. Warmth is provided by LPG central heating, two log burning stoves, and a mix of triple and double glazing throughout.

The house sits in beautiful wrap around grounds with gated entrance, lawns surrounded by shrubs, two rockeries, fencing and stone walls. Patio seating area, two sheds, woodshed, car port with light and power. Extensive gravel driveway providing ample off-road parking.

STRIKING IMPRESSIONS

Beautiful, elegant room with the feature log burning stove as the focal point. Wall of fitted shelves with overhead lighting, two deep triple glazed windows with integral blinds, carpeted flooring, radiator and TV point. Ornate, carpeted staircase to the first floor.
